

WAR SCARRED CITY OF JUAREZ
ON ARMS AWAITING BATTLETerror Stricken People
Awaiting Booming of Canon
Which Will Announce
Opening of Battle For Possession of Border Stronghold.

El Paso, Texas, April 29.—Information was received here Wednesday that Juarez troops were sleeping on their arms, ready to crush any attempted rebel movement, after their leaders had announced that they will remain loyal to the Carranza government.

According to the reports the rebel forces at the outbreak of the uprising entered the home of Gov. Emilio Salinas and made him a prisoner.

Following the first few skirmishes between rebel and Carranza forces, the loyal troops were brought together by Sr. de la O.

Then followed the battle for the possession of the city, during which the rebels were driven to the smelter, a mile beyond the city limits.

Sr. de la O has wired Carranza officials that he has sufficient control of the situation to hold the city until the arrival of reinforcements, now on the way from the south.

Gen. J. G. Escobar, Juarez district commander, and Col. Augustin Mora, commander of the Juarez garrison, Wednesday night announced that they will remain loyal to the Carranza government. This announcement was made following persistent reports that General Escobar and Colonel Mora had split, and attempts were being made to induce the troops, which Mora is said to control, to revolt.

Perkins-Deming

Last Wednesday in the city of Roswell, occurred the marriage of Mr. C. A. Perkins and Mrs. Catherine Deming, both of Carrizozo. The wedding was solemnized in a quiet manner and the news furnished a pleasant surprise for their friends in Carrizozo. Mrs. Deming came here from El Paso about one year ago and from that time until shortly before her marriage she was employed as day clerk at the Carrizozo Eating House in which position she became well acquainted with many of our people, consequently she has many friends, who are offering their congratulations.

The groom, Mr. Perkins, is city attorney of Carrizozo and aside from his law practice, is interested in stock raising and mining. He has finished his second term as city attorney in which position he has given a good measure of satisfaction. The newly married couple will reside in Carrizozo and have the best wishes of their many friends.

Week-End House Party
At The Clauch Ranch

One of the most entertaining, novel and enjoyable events of the season was staged at the Pueblo Pardo or Clauch ranch about 50 miles north of here which began Friday and ended with Sunday. Guests began to arrive early Friday morning and from that time until the close of the affair there was "something doing" all the time. Mrs. Floyd Clauch as hostess performed her office in a manner most admirable and entertaining as evidenced by the praises she received from the returning guests.

On Saturday morning, the guests were treated to a visit to the ruins of the Gran Quivira several miles north of the ranch where they viewed the mysteries of the silent city with its crumbling dust of centuries which gives back no historical echoes of its former glory. Messrs. Ferguson, Pitts and Bamberger furnished the music and dancing interspersed with refreshments was indulged in throughout the tri-day occasion. The guests, many of whom had never witnessed broncho riding and roving, had their curiosity satisfied Saturday morning; Marvin (Shorty) Wiley, gave an exhibition of "broncho busting" that brought cheers from his audience but the broncho, catching him off his guard in bowing his acknowledgments to the ladies, threw him high up in the air. He alighted on his feet however, and this was applauded as a clever "stunt" but to those better acquainted with the game the honor belonged entirely to the broncho.

Everybody had a good time nothing being left undone by the Clauch family with Messrs. Jefferson and Floyd as hosts and Mrs. Floyd Clauch as hostess. Judd (Slivers) Arnold gave a clever exhibition of typical Western horse back riding that was greatly enjoyed. The guests departed Sunday afternoon after congratulating hosts and hostess on the manner in which they were entertained and thanking them for the many courtesies extended. Guests present were: T. A. Spencer and wife, Chas. Spence and wife, Marvin Wiley and sister, the Misses Christine Gokey, Jack and Herndon Reily, Sallie and Jeanette Johnson, Verda Neff, Inez Holland, Mrs. Sam Allen, Messrs. Morgan Reily, W. Harris, F. H. and Peter Johnson, Pink Roberts, Thomas Carr, John and William Gallacher, Joseph Adams, F. R. Miller, Judd Arnold, Miss Bertie Murray, Tinnie; Miss Reed and Louis Adams, Corona.

Dr. F. S. Randles, formerly of Homestead, Oregon came on No. 8 today from a visit to his old home in Philadelphia, where he spent about three weeks with relatives and friends of former days.

Terrell-Duggar

Wednesday evening at 8:30 at the Methodist Church with the Rev. A. C. Douglas officiating, occurred the wedding of Mr. Charles Terrell and Miss Ella Duggar, both of Carrizozo. Quiet arrangements had been made by friends of the young couple to have the ceremony performed as an aftermath to the prayer meeting which was fitting and appropriate to both solemn occasions.

As the last words of the benediction were being pronounced, the contracting parties entered the church, with their attendants and filed slowly down the aisle to the altar as Mrs. D. S. Donaldson rendered "Mendelssohn's Wedding March." The ceremony was performed in the presence of 150 friends of both parties which was a joint gathering from the Methodist and Baptist churches. Miss Claire McQuillen sang "I Love You Truly."

After hearty congratulations were issued the happy couple and their admirers repaired to the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Duggar where bountiful refreshments were served. The bride was raised in this locality, spending her early childhood on the Nogal Mesa, afterwards coming to Carrizozo with the family about ten years ago. Mr. Terrell is a native of the state of Texas, and has resided here but one year during which time he has made friends by the score. For most of his time in Carrizozo he has been in the employ of the E. P. & S. W. Co., his duty being to keep record of trains and to see that crews are properly notified and assigned to their duties. "Charley" has issued many calls to others but this time, the "call of cupid" was issue to him and he responded with his usual promptness. The young couple will make Carrizozo their future home and they have the best wishes of their many friends.

GIRL FOUND GAGGED AND BOUND IN LONELY HOUSECarrizozo Honored at Game Association Meeting

T. E. Kelley, W. W. McLean, George and Bennett Dingwall returned Monday from the meeting of the New Mexico Fish & Game Association which was held in Santa Fe last Friday. Many delegates were present from different points over the state and the convention was a decided success. The association went on record for a vigorous enforcement of game and fish laws, for federal control of migratory birds, co-operation with stockmen in a campaign against predatory animals, an adequate system of game refuges, for an increase in game and fish that will furnish legitimate sport for every citizen, and offering a standing reward of $50.00 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person killing antelope, mountain sheep or ptarmigan.

The delegates were banqueted at the Elk's Home and also at the Women's Board of Trade. Charles Springer was elected president, Alfred Leopold, Albuquerque, secretary; C. T. Mardorf, Santa Fe, treasurer; C. A. Whitehead, Raton, T. E. Kelley, Carrizozo, were elected vice presidents. The convention voted an assessment of $1,000 to defray the expenses of publishing the Pine Cone, the official publication of the association and other necessary expenses. Carrizozo delegates were highly complimented on the new lodge and club grounds in the White mountains and it may be said with certainty, that our local club stands second to none in the association.

His Good Qualities

As the curtain falls on the expiration of Dr. E. E. Cole's first term as Superintendent of the Carrizozo schools, it is with a sense of justice to a deserving man, that we offer a few words of our feeble praise where credit belongs. He has superintended the schools in a manner that should be an example to others in like positions. He has used no favoritism; his methods have been practical, impartial, straightforward and many. He has strengthened the different departments along both educational and athletic lines. He has on the one hand, proven himself an educator equal to the task before him; on the other hand he has kindled an interest in athletic affairs to the extent that he has won the title of a "good scout."

Dr. Cole is a gentleman of high degree: a man among men, who gains friends instead of losing them. School troubles and difficulties have been handled without continually freighting matters of this nature to the local school board. His term is ended; he must either be retained or his successor chosen next week. His record is before us. Shall we begin the new school term with a certainty or an uncertainty—which?

Work on the Adams building on Alamogordo avenue is progressing nicely. The foundation is in and the frame structure will begin the first of the coming week.

Place of Mystery in Albuquerque Searched After Gross Finding of Young Lady Who Had Been Struck Down By An Unknown Assailant.

Albuquerque, April 29.—Dorothy Brooks, 15-year-old girl who lives at the Phi Mu sorority house on East Gold avenue, it was learned today, was found bound and gagged on the closet floor of a down stairs room of the house early Sunday evening, following a supposed assault by someone who entered the room in which she was studying. Miss Brooks was alone in the house at the time.

According to the girl's story she was sitting studying in the front bedroom downstairs. She had been there for some time, and had been going up to her own room upstairs.

Apparently someone who entered the room behind her, struck her on the head, knocking her unconscious. The assailant then tied her hands and feet together, bound her mouth tightly and thrust her in the closet, according to evidence.

Returned to Prison to Beat High Cost of Living

Joilet, Ill., April 28.—Robert Needham, 26 years old, scaled the walls of the prison last night—scaled them from the outside and sneaked back into the penitentiary.

Needham was paroled April 2. He had been sent here from Whiteside county on a charge of burglary.

"The only way to beat the high cost of living is to be in prison," said Needham when asked his reason for returning to prison.

Anti-Overall Movement Launched

Marysville, Calif., April 27.—Members of the Marysville carpenters' union, it was announced today, voted to boycott business men who participate or permit their employees to participate in the movement to wear overalls as a means of reducing clothing costs.

The action was taken, it was said, because the "movement tends to increase prices of overalls and makes their purchase prohibitive for mechanics and artisans."

Mrs. Longworth

Wears Pantalettes

Washington, April 28.—The overall craze has nothing on Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, formerly Alice Roosevelt. Only she has "em made of black satin. She wore them at a fashionable dinner here. From the bottom of the black satin smock, which fell to about fourteen inches from the floor, there was a glimpse of the black satin pantalettes, which reached to the ankles.
